Re: USA vs. Orlando Spado
Case # CR-08-0240-06 (BMC)
USM Number 009-89-052

Dear Judge Cogan:

I am writing to you on behalf of Orlando Spado (age 66) who is incarcerated at the Federal Correctional Institution in Lompoc, California since his sentencing on September 7, 2010 by you. You may remember my letter of August 11, 2010 to you (copy attached).

Mr. Spado, as you noted, in the sentencing transcript has a number of ailments, the most grave being congestive heart failure, diabetes, and prostate issues. His prescriptions alone attest to the seriousness of his conditions. You therefore recommended "that he be promptly designated to a facility in the Los Angeles area with adequate medical facilities to treat his many conditions". That facility should have been the Federal Correctional Institution on Terminal Island in the San Pedro, CA area. It would have been close to hospitals in San Pedro and Long Beach which have appropriate facilities for his conditions.

Lompoc is an isolated institution over 3 hours from Los Angeles and over 1 hour from Santa Barbara. There is no appropriate hospital in the city of Lompoc. If he had a heart attack, Santa Barbara is the closest hospital with appropriate medical equipment and personnel. I do not know why he wasn't
